Dear Partners,

We are happy to announce that the Department of International Relations and the Department of European Educational Programmes of Aristotle University of Thessaloniki are accepting applications from students interested in an Erasmus+ Traineeship as described in the details attached.

Aristotle University of Thessaloniki has two openings (one at each Department stated above). Interested applicants should carefully read the calls and send to the e-mails specified at each call their expression of interest including: a CV (preferable a Europass CV), a Motivation Letter, their English Language Certificate (knowledge of the Greek language will be considered a plus) and any other certificates that could support their application.

The deadline for the application is the 30th of June, 2016. After the selection, the selected applicants will be notified about the procedure to be followed (Erasmus+ Learning Agreement for Traineeship and Online application). Only shortlisted applicants will be notified.

Please note that this is a call through Erasmus+ and therefore interested applicants should follow all the necessary procedures that their Home University acknowledges.

In case of any questions please use the following e-mails:
